Beatles Tribute Night

They call themselves a A Hard Night's Day (hardnightsday.com) and though that may sound backwards, their music is straight-on Beatles. Plano Stages continues its Concerts in the Park series with A Hard Night's Day rockin' 'n' rollin' your favorite Beatles songs. They'll have you twisting and shouting before you can say "Help!"

The concert begins at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, May 22 at the Amphitheater at Oak Point Park. Tickets are $9-$15. This event sold out last year, so buy your tickets early! Credit cards are accepted; however, no debit cards. Alcohol is permitted (21+). Parking is free.

Summer Sounds Concert Series

Crowds will converge at the Joe Farmer Recreation Center Amphitheatre in Allen this month for the popular Summer Sounds Concert Series that offers three free concerts in May.

On Monday, May 17, the Pit Pops will take you back to the '60s and '70s playing hits from the Beatles, Santana, and Chicago. The Pit Pops consist of a full rhythm section, percussion, brass section, and vocalists.

On Monday, May 24, Bebe Le Strange will pay tribute to the '70s rock band Heart with classics like "Barracuda," "Heartless," and "Dog and Butterfly." Bebe Le Strange is comprised of bassist Kirk Young, vocalist Nona Ellison, keyboardist Leigh Anne Bramlett, guitarists Chris Bradley and John Walker, and drummer Dave Gilley.

Finally, on Monday, May 31, the Allen Philharmonic Orchestra will present its annual Memorial Day concert at 7 p.m. The event will conclude with a patriotic fireworks display.

The Summer Sounds Concert Series will continue in June with Briefcase Blues, Professor D, and the Tejas Brothers. More information will be available in the June issue of Plano Profile.
